The national government's offer of $25,000 000 for good ronds in states that will agree to spend as much for such improvements, should not fuil to meet a responsive endorsement from the Kentneky legislature. Legislation at Frankfort should follow that will insure Kentucky as large a portion of this national fund as possible. In North Carolina, where the road work is being advanced remarkably, there will be received from the federal fund $754,000 from this $25,000,000 appropriation. What wonders could be done on Kentneky roads by such an expenditure under competent engineers which the government at Washington demands. The present session of the legislature is fleeting. There will not be another for two years. Prompt action is necessary.—Owensboro Messenger.

DON'T OWE MAYO, HOWEVER.

A bill has been introduced at Frankfort to create a new county and name it for John C. C. Mayo. There's no telling how much Kentucky Mayo before this Legislature gets through with us.—Elizabethtown News,

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT AND

THE INCREASED LIQUOR CONSUMPTION When the history of legislation among the several States for the past decade comes to be written, statutes providing for the diminition of the sule of liquors will occupy a prominent place. Every State in the Union has passed some form of prohibition or local option legislation.

Like many other movements that we regard as local, governmental and individual action against the liquor traffic has been world-wide. Local option is in operation in Sweden and Norway. In the parliament of the former country 150 of 350 mcmbers are "aggressive total abstainers." Temperance legislation has been enacted in Holland. In Germany, where amid ridicule the first total abstainer was discovered in 1893, the "tlond Templars," a temperance organization, reported an accession of 100,000 members in 1912. It is an interesting fact that the temperance question hardly exists in a country like Bulgaria. Because of the abstinence of its Mohammedan population, the per capita consumption of liquors in Bulgaria is one-eighth of that of Germany.

But the riddle of the consumption of liquors is inserntable to the mere observer. In the ten years, from 1902 to 1912, more temperance legislation was enneted in the United States than in any previous decade. In that time the consumption of distilled spirits increased 32,000,000 gallons; the consumption of wines increased 5,500,000 gallons, and the consumption of malt liquors increased 550,-000,000 gallons. In other words, the total consumption of liquors increased 35 per cent, while our population increased 20 per cent. Perhaps we shall some day receive a dispassionate explanation of these inexorable and very interesting statistics.—

more trouble. I shall never be without

This is a topsy-turyy world. One man is saying to build a house and another is trying to sell his for less than it eost. One man is spending all the money he can make in taking a girl to an entertainment and sending her flowers in the hopes, eventnally, to make her his wife, while his neighbor i spending the gold he has to get a divorce. On man esempes all the diseases man is heir to and gets killed on the railroad. Another goes without being hurt and dies with whooping cough. Such is life.

GREAT SCHEME!

A bill to revive boxing in Kentucky has been introduced in the Legislature. By all means pass it. Then appoint a commission of half dozen politicians at salaries of about $2,500 a year to look after the bonts. Such a move would be in keeping with many other fool laws passed in recent years. Danville Messenger.

WHAT WOULD A MAN DO?

An exchange says: "Men should remember that a woman can't always be smiling who has to cook dinner, answer the door bell half a dozen times, and get rid of a neighbor who has dropped in, attend to a sick baby, tie up the cut of a two-year-old. guther up the playthings of a four-year-old, tie up the feet of a six-year-old on skates and get an eight-year-old ready for school, to say nothing of sweeping, eleaning, etc. A woman with all this to contend with may claim it as a privilege to look and feel a little tired sometimes, and a word of sympathy would not be too much to expect from a man who, during the honeymoon, wouldn't let her carry so much as a sunshade."

BOYS WILL BE BOYS.
